Profile of Inmate Population Under Custody on January 1, 2011

INTRODUCTION

Purpose of the Report

This report profiles the inmate population by demographic and criminal history characteristics. It presents information on inmates held under Department of Correctional Services (DOCS) custody on January 1, 2011. On April 1, 2011 the Department of Correctional Services was merged with the Division of Parole to form a new agency called, the Department of Corrections and Community Services.

Sections of the Report

The first section describes the demographic characteristics of inmates, including gender, age, race/ethnic status, region of commitment, birthplace, marital status, number of living children, religious affiliation, and veteran status. The second section describes the criminal history of inmates, including information on minimum sentence, maximum sentence, commitment crime, second felony sentencing status, prior adult criminal record, length of time served at current facility, length of time in Department custody, time to earliest release, and determinant sentencing status.

Section One

DEMOGRAPHIC CHARACTERISTICS

Gender Distribution

There were 56,315 inmates under custody on January 1, 2011. Of this total, 54,109 (96.1%) were male and 2,206 (3.9%) were female. This is a drop of 2,063 (4%) total inmates since last year's report; the number of male inmates decreased 1,789 (3%) and female inmates decreased 274 (11%).

Age Distribution

The average age of offenders under DOCS custody on January 1, 2011 was 37 years old. The average age for female inmates was slightly higher and this is reflected in the age distribution. The largest group of inmates for male inmates was 30-39 age range and for female inmates 40-49 age range.

Inmates under 21 years old constituted 5% of the total under custody population while inmates 60 and over represented 3% of the inmate population.

Region of Commitment

Approximately half (48%) of the inmates under custody on January 1, 2011, were committed from New York City and 12% were committed from suburban New York (Nassau, Rockland, Suffolk, and Westchester counties). Upstate counties with a population center containing 50,000 inhabitants or more (Albany, Broome, Erie, Monroe, Oneida, Onondaga, Niagara, Rensselaer, and Schenectady counties) comprised 24% of the inmate population. The remaining 16% were sentenced from the other Upstate counties.

World Region of Birth

Eighty-nine percent (89%) of under custody inmates were born in the United States or a United States Territory. Approximately eleven percent or 5,930 of under custody inmates report birth in a foreign country. Most of these inmates reporting birth in a foreign country were from one of the island nations in the Caribbean basin.<sup>1</sup>

Section Two

CRIMINAL HISTORY

Minimum Sentence

The median minimum sentence of under custody inmates was more than 5 years. However, the average minimum sentence length was nine and a half years, reflecting the influence of lengthy minimum terms of many inmates.

Current sentencing laws in New York require an offender convicted of certain crimes to receive a determinate sentence. Determinate sentences require an inmate to serve a minimum of 6/7 of the determinate sentence imposed by the judge before being eligible for release. An offender committed for a crime not designated as having a determinate sentence has a minimum sentence set by the court.

As of January 1, 2011, there were 223 inmates under custody who were serving sentences of "Life Without Parole". In calculating the average minimum sentence length, "Life Without Parole" cases were given a value of 45 years or 540 months.

Maximum Sentence

The median maximum sentence of under custody inmates was 7 years. However, the average maximum sentence length was eleven and a half years, reflecting the influence of lengthy maximum terms of many inmates.

Average maximum sentences for women (102 months) were 39 months shorter than for men (141 months). Median maximum sentences for women (60 months) were 24 months shorter than for men (84 months).

In calculating the average maximum sentence length, "Life Without Parole" cases were given a value of 45 years or 540 months, and Life maximum cases were given a value of 25 years or 300 months.

Commitment Crime

Almost 63% of the inmates under custody on January 1, 2011, were serving a sentence for a Violent Felony Offense (VFO). Another 15% of inmates were serving a sentence for a Drug crime. Forty-six percent (46%) of female inmates were serving a sentence for a VFO compared to 64% for male inmates. In contrast, 24% of female inmates were sentenced for a property or other crime compared to 11% percent of male inmates. Table 12B lists the commitment crimes that are included in each of the general categories in figure 12.

Second Felony Offender Status

Over half (55%) of the inmates under custody on January 1, 2011, were sentenced as first felony offenders. Crime by predicate felony sentencing status is presented in Table 13A.

New York State Penal Law establishes more severe sentences for second felony offenders than for first felony offenders. It should be noted that some inmates included among the individuals sentenced as first felony offenders were convicted of prior felony crimes and some even had previous sentences to state prison. The majority of such inmates were convicted of class A-1 violent felony crimes, which do not permit sentencing as a second felony offender since the penalties for A-1 violent felony crimes are already the most severe.
